

DON'T LET IRISH HUNGER STRIKERS DIE

Long Kesh Concentration Camp

Irish Nationalist prisoners are denied all rights as Prisoners of War by the British Government.

Because the prisoners resist all attempts to be treated as criminals, they are tortured, beaten and degraded.

In support of their just demand to be treated as Prisoners of War, they are now on hunger strike.

Force the British Government to restore Prisoner of War Status