

Comhlámh's 'What Next?'

A Course for Returned Volunteers

'What Next?' is a course for returnees who have lived and worked overseas in the capacity of learner, volunteer or development worker, and who are interested in continuing engaging in development education from Ireland.

What is covered?

The 4-day course will engage participants in a critical process to explore development issues and skills to raise awareness and take action locally. An outcome of the course is that participants will have the opportunity to develop and deliver an Action Project either individually or as a group around a particular issue or idea.

How much does it cost?

The course will cost €60 per person, which covers all training materials, accommodation costs, meals and refreshments.

When and where? Residential weekend of Sat 01st - 3rd of Mar 2013 : Cloughjordan Ecovillage, Tipperary

Saturday 13th Apr: Irish Aid Volunteering and Information Centre, 27-31 Upper O'Connell Street, Dublin 1
